Necessity of Speedy Action by Moneyed Men.

WARD MEETINGS LAST NIGHT.

The late order respecting the mustering in of w.bsti tutes is found to work very badly, and needs to be revoked without delay, if it is intended to afford the city a fair opportunity to fill its quota. The following as the order

CHRCULAR—NO. 20.

OFFICE OF ACTING ASSISTANT PROVES MARSHAL GENERAL AND STFERMINENDEST TOLLENGER.

RECERTINE SERVICE, SOUTHERN DIVISION, NEW YORK, MARCH 18, 1895.

The Acting Assistant Provest Marshall General instructs provost marshall and mustering officers that the Prov ost Marshall of the district in which the principal is early fled is the only officer authorized to master into the service a substitute for are enrolled or drafted man.

The attention of mustering efficers is called to the above. No credit will be given for substitutes mustered in in violation of this order. Agents and broker, will be notified to take all substitutes to district provost marshals for muster.

First Leetenant Sixth infasery, Acting Assistant Adjutant General.

Captain R. C. Parker.

The effect of the above will be to sensibe retired the

The effect of the above will be to sensibly retard the ing of our quota by volunteering and substitutes. But s most of the orders emanating from General Fry have d this tendency no one is surprised. The order for the traft to commence, at a moment when volunteering was never so active, is but another evidence of the shortightedness of the authorities at Washington. Hundreds were volunteering and receiving the bounty, through a mere apprehehension that they might be conscripted. and thousands of others were ready to follow this example. The draft having been enforced, all who find them-led the safe from its clutches snap their fingers and refuse to volunteer on any terms. The number of recruitsper day has consequently sensibly diminished since the en-forcement of the draft.

lo volunteer on any terms. The number of recruitsper flay has consequently sensibly dirainished since the enforcement of the draft.

The many whe now feel themselves safe from its hardships refuse to volunteer, while those who are conscripted cannot. Hence it is that the effect of drafting is to make volunteering a most difficult task, while it was an easy one before. So with this order in regard to substitutes. The Supervisors Committee supplied ten where individuals or provost marshals did one. The plan adopt d by Chairman Blunt was a very simple one and effective. Those desiring a substitute stepped into the office of the Supervisors Committee, entered their names and made the necessary deposit. They could now furnish their own man or leave it to the committee. The latter course was usually adopted, and nearly every applicant was supplied. The cause of the great success of the committee in supplying substitutes was this:—Here was the goneral office for volunteering. Recruits rushed in from all quarters, and whenever one was discovered who was eligible as a sub the fact was stated to him by Mr. Blunt or the mustering officer, and the result usually was that he would accept of the position of sub for the sake of the advantage derived in being paid the entire government as well as county bounty, cash in hand. He then was passed to the credit of the officer of the sake of the advantage derived in being paid the entire government as well as county bounty, cash in hand. He then was passed to the credit of the officer of the dividuals for substitutes, nearly all of which has been paid out. This is just so much money awed to the city and the general government, and this saving especially to the county of six hundred dollars; for each man secured as a substitute was the main inducement for its realous and efficient action. But the order above stops all this. Every person now wanting a gubstitute must hunt him up himself the best way be another must hunt him up himself the best way be another must hunt him up himself required before.

Thus, as we have said, every step taken by the government in reference to the quota of New York, has tended to retard and interfere with the filling of it. We hope that such arrangements may yet be made through Gen. Dodge as to allow the Supervisors' system of furnishing substitutes to be continued.

THE COUNTY BOUNTY LOAN.

Of the two millions seven per cent county bounty los seven hundred and eighty-five thousand is subscribed But this, liberal as it is, is not enough, and the Volunteering Committee, in its constantly successful sperations, is nearly out of funds. Unless the appeals the Comptroller for subscriptions to this admirable by the Comptroiser for subscriptions to this admirable joan are more readily responded to by our moneyed men and institutions, the committee itself will be compelled to suspend its business of volunteering, and leave our citizens to the tender mercies of a conscription. The wards of the city are doing well, but without the co-operation of the Supervisors' Committee it will be of no avail. There are no such securities on our market as this seven per cent county loan. Their value is not based like some others, solely upon credit, but on the ne others, solely upon credit, b actual weath of the city, on property owned by the city and county of New York. There is nothing to equal their safety or destratements, and we hope our moneyed men will promptly step forward, subscribe to the balance of the loan, and keep the committee in funds for volun-teering purposes. In no other way can our quota volun-tarily be filled.

leering purposes. In no other way can our quota voluntarily be filled.

As regards recruiting in the different wards throughout the city, Supervisor Blunt considers that a great mistake has been made in the offering of adultional bounty and hand money, as we find in wards such as the Ninth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth, where the wealth of the citizens coables them to hold out additional inducers us, recruiting is good, while in other wards, such as the Fifth, Tenth, seventh and others, where this is not possible, recruiting is atmost at a standstill. If the money thus applied were used for the purchase of seven thirty bonds, in order to fill the almost exhausted collers of the County Volunteering Committee, and a bounty equal in value were offered in each district, we cannot but think a more favorable result for all might be arrived at.

The effect of the above so called advantages may be seen in the number of men procured at the office in the Park yesterday—thirty-five—being a falling off of one half of the usual number must red in each day.

The naval rendezvous throughout the city still militate against the floard, and the absence of a naval examining surgeon at the office in the Park compels Mr. Blum to reject a number of applicants for calistment in that branch of the service. It is to be respected that these obstacles should be thrown in the way of Supervisor Blunt, and again hope a speedy r moval of them.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

towards filling the quota. These are the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth, in which committees on the filling of the local or ward quotas have already been appointed. The machinery of recruiting on this new basis, has not yet come fairly into operation, however, and consequently the number of recruits and substitutes obtained yesterday showed no increase over the numbers hitherto mustered showed no increase over the numbers hitherto mustered in at the Provest Marshal's office. There is little doubt, however, that with a little time the deficiency in the quota of the district will be materially reduced. The wheel as was generally expected, was not put in motion yesterday; nor will it, probably, until an opportunity is afforded for fully testing the ability of the district to fill its quota under the new plan of operations now adopted. The number of men mustered in yesterday was five. Of these, three were substitutes and two recruits. Most of the men whose names recently turned up in the wheel have already been notified. It is hoped that recruiting in this district will soon be so rapid as to save the men on whose personal liberty. Uncle Sam has diready a temporary claim.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT.

The citizens of the Tenth ward have succeeded in establishing a branch recruiting office in the Essex Market Court House. This office was opened yesterday, but owing to their not having a regular surgeon and mustering in officer, a number of intendant volunteers were sent to other offices.

Lieutenant Ward mustered in six men in the early part of the day, and we have no doubt, but that from its central position, it will prove a considerable auxiliary to the Provost Marshal's office in Browne street. All the necessary officers will be on hand this morning, and everything in residuess for the enlastment of recruiss. The office is under the agerintendence of Supervisor Pardy.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

At the Provest Marshal's office in connection with the Bevenin district recruiting progresses very well. About twenty men presented themselves for encoment yesterday, of which number eleven were accepted, the remaining pine being disqualified from physical or other inabili-ty. The average number enrolled each day is ten, and the Provest Marshal, Captain Wagner, states that the Graft will not be reasumed in that district, providing the average is kept up, as the time of the various officinis is fully occupied in the examining and mustering in of vol-unteers.

The quota of the entire district, credit being taken for enlishin via up to the present, is two thousand six bundred and fifty, that of the Riesenth ward is one thousand and six's two, which, with the siddicoal per centage, is two thousand one bundred and twenty four. Of this number one thousand mances have been drawn from the whoel. That of the seventeenth ward is lifteen hundred and of this district have been drawn.

All those drafted in this district have been notified of the fact, ac ording to the legal provision, but are not re-have received further notice, which, considering the number carrolled daily, is not likely.

The NINTH DISTRICT.

In the Ninth Congressional diricit, ever which Provost Marshal Captain Dunning ably and courieously presides, recruiting is beginning to recover from the effects of the draft. This district cover is larger extent of ground than any other district in the city. It extends from Port eth street to Hariem river, and the extrame north end of the island, embracing an area of twenty-seven square infles. Over this large tract a population of about one hundred and sixty thousar d souls is distributed. With such a wide district it is very difficult to obtain anything like concentrated act on. The various political associations, however, have also as the strain of the concentrated act on. The various political associations, however, have also as the matter in hand. Meetings have already been I ed for the furtherance of recruiting, and other meetic as, on a larger scale, are contemptated. The cinded in he district. Of these the Twelfth ward only was draft and was computed at three hundred and eighty two and seven hundred and seventy-four names were drawn to allow for exemptions. On the list of Marci, eight hundred and twenty-eight. From March I to forty-one men were enlisted—reducing the entire deficiency of the district was one thousand, eight numbered and seven hundred and eighty-seven. For whether the account stands thus—

Some sight further reduction must be made from those figures to allow for volunteers placed to the credit of the waxis at Mr. Blunt's office, respecting which we have been unable to obtain any accurate information. It may be safely assumed, however, that in the entire district the deficiency is not less than one thousand seven hundred and fifty; and recruits will have to come in much faster than they have during the last twenty days, if the draft is to be cattrely averted.

THE BLEVENTH WARD.

citizens of the Eleventh ward attended in large The citizens of the Eleventh ward attended in large a mbers at a meeting held on yesterday evening, at 220 Second street, for the purpose of forming a plan for the filling of their quota. An association styled the "Eleventh Ward Association for Filling Quota," was organized, and the following officers were elected:—Dr. J. Miller, President; L. Ansbacher and W. W. Lyons, Secretaries, and D. D. Wright Treasurer; also a finance committee of thirty six gentlemen, to collect funds for the offering of extra inducements to recruits.

Mr. Gross, States Zeitung, and others, addressed the meeting at some length. THE SIXTEENTH WARD.

The citizens of the Sixteenth ward seem determined to fill their quota with volunteers. A meeting was held last evening, at the corner of Twenty-second street and Seventh avenue, to receive subscriptions to assist in filling the quota. The Sixteenth ward comprises emothird of the Sixth district, and a majority of the men drafted of the Sixth district, and a majority of the men drafted there belong to that class who can neither afford to go to the war nor furnish substitutes. The meeting last evening was well attended, and the amount of subscriptions received gives good promise that the quota will be filled without the necessity of calling upon those who have been drafted.

The number of recruits obtained yesterday in this ward will not fall far short of twenty-five, and if the Provost Marshal would open another recruiting office in the ward the number might be doubled.

The whole number of recruits received in the Sixth district yesterday is in the neighborhood of one hundred, which is far above the number of drafted men examined in Brooklyn under the operation of the conscription.

The whole number of men now required to fill the quota of the Sixth district, which comprises three of the most populous wards of the city, will not exceed two thousand men, and unless the people refuse to lend their aid, this number can be furnished within the next three weeks. Captain Custer and his assistance are rendering all the assistance in their power to aid the Citizens' Committee in securing recruits.

Subscriptions for the Sixteenth ward will be received at the corner of Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue, and corner of Eighteenth street and Eighth avenue.

According to the success of the present movement so far, there is not the slightest chance of the drafted men being called upon, for the reason that the quota is being filled more rapidly by volunteering than it could be by conscription.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens of the above

An adjourned meeting of the citizens of the above ward was held at No. 5 Cooper Institute, last evening, Charles J. Cornell in the chair and G. F. Steibreiner actcharles J. Cornell in the chair and G. F. Steibreiner acting as Secretary. An executive committee of twenty-five was appointed to arrange for the filling of the quota of the ward. A subscription list was opened, and a considerable sum of money was handed to the committee in a short time. Each person present seemed determined that the Seventeenth ward, which has over-sixteen thousand names enrolled, and has not as yet had a place in the wheel, shall fill its quota. It is the intention of the committee to act promptly, and offer one hundred dollars extra hand money for each volunteer presented. THE FIFTH WARD.

A mass meeting of citizens of this ward is called for this evening at the Fifth Ward Hotel. Energetic exer-tions are being made by the inhabitants of the locality to fill their quota, A large gathering is anticipated for to-night.

Strawship Daniel, Weberger arrived at Builtmore 21st inst from Wilmington, NC, for repairs, where she had been sunk on the obstructions in that harbor.

Bark S Hobart - Portland, March 21—A letter from Capt Croston states that the bark Sarah Hobert, when one day out from Havana for Remedios, was run into by an iron blockade runner, striking the vessel aft, badly damuging mainmast and causing her to leak considerably. The night was dark, and the steamer showed no lights, and kept away after collision. She left about 160 lbs iron in the bark. Capt C thinks the steamer must have sunk soon after. [The bark was at Remedios at last accounts.]

Brig Edith Ann (Br), from Porte Rico for Portland, before reported ashere on the Old Washlorn Ledge, went to pieces at 30 clock morning of 17th inst. The crew lost everything.
